

HONORABLE RICHARD A. JONES

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

J.T. et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

REGENCE BLUESHIELD, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. C12-90 RAJ

ORDER

This matter comes before the court on the parties' stipulation regarding the proper method to bring this action to conclusion. Dkt. # 86.

The parties represent that they may be able to settle J.T.'s claims. If no settlement can be reached, the parties agree that the court should make a decision based on an administrative review of the record, rather than a live trial. With respect to S.A., defendant maintains that it is entitled to entry of judgment, and S.A. disagrees. The parties would like the court to set a briefing schedule for defendant's motion for entry of judgment. If judgment is entered, no additional proceedings will be necessary. However, if judgment is not entered, the parties would like to proceed on an administrative review of the record, rather than a live trial.
